

Lorna May

When I was born
My folks picked a name
It was pretty—Lorna
But growing up, I wasn't so sure
That I liked it—so I added some more.
My older sister was Thelma June
She was born in June so that was why
The name of June was put in too
It was pretty like the summer moon
And then came Celia, it wasn't quite so keen
And so they named her Celia Gene.
Then I came along, the 6th of May
So why wasn't my middle name May?
It sounded so elegant, like a princess maybe
Or a queen, of some royalty
And so, when I was asked my name, I would say
My name is Lorna— Lorna May.
But my older brother and sisters too
Told me that it wasn't true
They laughed and made me feel so bad
I even cried— I was so sad.
I believed it myself, and why not?
Surely they gave it a lot of thought
She was born in May so it should be
Lorna May—it made sense to me.
But they still teased me when I would say
My name is Lorna — Lorna May.
But I made it through my grade school years
And was very shy
But I had good parents and siblings too
One day my mother put me on her knee
And said she wanted to talk to me
She told me what was really true
And I did not know what to do
When she told me my name was not May
But just Lorna— was pretty anyway
So I made it through my growing up years
With no more teasing and no more tears
But now that I'm older— at 91
And my days on earth are almost done
I sometimes feel I'd like to say
My name is Lorna, Lorna May
