Eternity

In His heavenly mansion up yonder,
There's a place just waiting for me,
Where all is peaceful and tranquil
A place I hope some day to be.

There's no sorrow or suffering in heaven
Families greet one another with love,
Oh the joy of that happy reunion
As we pass through the gates up above.

God is happy to see all his children
As we stand before that great throne,
The blessings that come from the Master
Are the greatest that we've ever known.

So don't be afraid of the journey,
For this purpose we all came to earth,
We knew we would go back to meet Him
To that heavenly home of our birth.
