

We begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.

God looked around his garden and found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful; He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyes and whispered, 'Peace be thine'.
It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you the day God called you home.
