

Homeward Bound

In the quiet misty morning, when the moon has gone to bed
When the sparrows stop their singing and the sky is clear and red
When the summer's ceased its gleaming, when the corn is past its prime
When adventure's lost its meaning, I'll be homeward bound in time
Bind me not to the pasture, chain me not to the plow
Set me free to find my calling and I'll return to you somehow
If you find it's me you're missing, if you're hoping I'll return
To your thoughts I'll soon be listening and in the road I'll stop and turn
Then the wind will set me racing as my journey nears its end
And the path I'll be retracing when I'm homeward bound again
Bind me not to the pasture, chain me not to the plow
Set me free to find my calling and I'll return to you somehow
In the quiet misty morning, when the moon has gone to bed
When the sparrows stop their singing, I'll be homeward bound again
