

Grandchildren's Memories

Benton: Grandma showed us the importance of family and togetherness. She always knew what was most important, and she always put family first.

Kyle: Grandma was a protector of her family; her home was always a place of peace and comfort.

Leathie: Grandma taught me how to love and care for a garden, and she lovingly tended to her family in the same manner.

Brayden: Grandma was, and still is, a beacon of light and hope to all who knew her.

Joey: Grandma was always excited to see us. I loved helping her in her garden of delicious fruits and veggies. She is the reason I always have one healthy box of cereal in my cupboard.

Jillane: She was always a fighter. Nothing ever stopped her from doing something, especially when it came to family.

Zach: Grandma always did and still does help me find a lesson through my everyday tasks.

Brody: Grandma never stopped working.

Trevor: She always treated me with such kindness and was filled with the spirit beyond measure.

Kendra: She always put everyone before her own needs.

Erin: Grandma was always supportive of everything her family was doing.

Shelby: Grandma never backed down from a challenge; she loved to participate in activities with her grandkids. She never let us quit, no matter how much we wanted to.

Weslee: Grandma always complimented me when I went to her house.

In Loving Memory

Martha Fern Hirst

1950 ~ 2026

In Loving Memory
Martha Fern Hirst

BORN

April 18, 1950
Rexburg, Idaho

She's the love of my life.
She's my lady. ~Richard

DIED

January 16, 2026
Burley, Idaho

She's the love of my life.
She's my lady. ~Richard

GRAVESIDE SERVICE
1:00 p.m. Thursday, January 22, 2026
Sutton Cemetery
864 East 7156 South ~ Rexburg, Idaho

Conducting Bishop Brent Stoker
Family Prayer Ric Hirst Jr., son
Shared Memories Family & Friends
Closing Remarks Bishop Brent Stoker
Dedicatory Prayer Timothy Hirst, son

Sharing her name, Martha, has become a gift, one that binds us in a legacy of strength. Mom showed me the power of choosing positivity and living with hope. Even in the hardest moments, she always found a way to shine a positive light. She taught me, by example, to put family first and trust in our Father in Heaven, and how to love, believe, and live with purpose. ~Michelle

I remember going woodcutting and camping with her. She worked right alongside us all day, helping gather wood, except when she stepped away to make hoagies for lunch—and they always tasted so good. Then she was back at it until she left again to make her famous Dutch oven chicken, knowing it would be nearly dark when we returned, and we'd be starving. ~Ric

One of my most precious memories is that mom taught me how to be a good wife and mother. She always led by example & she was always so gentle in teaching and showing me what I needed to do and how to make the most of every situation I encountered. I am eternally grateful to have had the opportunity to be her daughter. ~Kimberly

I gained a love of gardening from the hours we spent together taking care of the garden and yard. She taught me to love and respect the various plants on the earth and to hate "those dang weeds"! Most importantly, she helped me gain my own testimony by the way she lived the gospel and loved the Savior Jesus Christ. Love you mom. ~Timothy

CASKET BEARERS
Benton Murray, Brayden Murray, Joey Yeaman
Zach Yeaman, Trevor Hirst, Corbin Spackman, Weslee Cazier

HONORARY BEARERS

Kyle Hirst, Ric Hirst Jr., Timothy Hirst
Chad Cazier, Brody Hirst, Shawn Murray